Failure to respond in writing within this time limit shall be construed as a rejection of the offer. Bargaining unit members must maintain a current mailing address with the SWWC office. Members not accepting the position shall remain on the recall list for a period of not more than eighteen months from the original date of lay-off. A member who rejects more than three (3) times a position equal to or greater in FTE and rate to the position occupied by the member at the time of layoff shall be removed from recall status. Bargaining unit members shall by July 1 notify the SWWC of a current home address, phone number, and intent to remain on the recall list. Failure to notify SWWC by July 1 will constitute removal from recall status. Upon returning to an SWWC position, the member shall be placed on the same step on the salary schedule as occupied at the time of lay off and shall retain their original seniority date.

Employees who have completed their probationary period may be granted a leave at the discretion of SWWC of no more than twenty-four (24) hours per year, non-accumulative, for situations that arise requiring the employee's personal attention which cannot be attended to when work is not in session and which are not covered under other provisions of this Agreement.
