Awards

- Students are eligible to receive only one $2,000 Creative Writing Scholarship per year (junior/senior year). If they have won multiple awards for a maximum of two scholarships, one scholarship may be used during their freshman year and the second one during their sophomore year. The student must be enrolled as a full-time, degree seeking student (minimum 12 credits/semester) at SMSU.
- Gift certificates are given to the 1st place winners from each grade level in each writing category.
- Medals are given to the top three place winners in each grade level from each writing category.
- 1 free copy of the anthology (book) for all place winners.
- A recognition award will be presented to the school with the most place winners.

Judging Process

Entries are screened by SMSU creative writing students who score according to a rubric.

Each entry is scored by multiple student judges.

The entries with the highest scores are submitted to the final judges, faculty in the SMSU Creative Writing Program.

Announcing Winners

After the results are determined: the top three place winners in each category will receive an invitation to the Award Ceremony, which will require an RSVP.

Awards Ceremony will be held on Sunday afternoon, April 23, 2023 for all winning students, their families and teachers. This is where place winner results will be revealed. Attire is dressy casual. Additional details will be mailed to finalists at a later date. This year's special guest speaker is Lauren Carlson, an author from Michigan.
