

Upcoming events: (watch for details as they become available on-line).
Let us know if you want to be on the email list.

This conference brings authors and students together to learn different ways to create and tell stories. Whether it is a song, a poem, fiction or nonfiction, news stories, comic story, everyone has a story to tell. Writing can open a lifetime of opportunities for students.

Keynote: Daniel Bernstrom, author Brochure is coming soon.
www.swwc.org/yw

After creating a story at Young Writers, students can submit their story to the Creative Writing contest. Students around our regions submit amazing stories that deserve to be read and showcased. Through writing, students can learn about themselves and their abilities as a writer.

Enter one or more pieces in these three categories:

- * Fiction
- * Poetry
- * Creative Non-Fiction

Guest Speaker: Michael Kleber-Diggs
Submission Deadline: January 16, 2026
www.swwc.org/cw

The basic definition of science is learning about the world around us by observing and experimenting. Where can kids learn more about science? At the Science & Nature Conference, of course. Kids are empowered when using critical thinking, problem-solving and communication skills all while analyzing information, experimenting, investigating and observing.

Keynote: Professor Norm Barnhart Brochure is coming spring of 2026.
www.swwc.org/sn

Contact: Andrea Anderson,
Student Enrichment Coordinator

507-537-2257

andrea.anderson@swwc.org

www.swwc.org/studentenrichment

SWWC
STUDENT ENRICHMENT