

June 2021 Nominations

Rebecca Norman - Special Education Paraprofessional

“Becky goes above and beyond with everything she does. She is always willing to try new things and jumps in to help whenever she can. She has formed great relationships with the students and staff. She is a huge asset to ELC-Montevideo!”

Amalia McCalla – Special Education Paraprofessional

“Amalia started this spring. She has jumped in and is willing to help wherever needed. She has found her calling! We appreciate all you do here at ELC-Montevideo!”

Molly Ludwig – School Social Worker

“I cannot say thank you enough to Molly. She is a kind, caring person that wants what is best for every student. She goes beyond what is expected and does it whole-heartedly! Thank you Molly for everything you do here at ELC-Montevideo.”

Amy Olfert – Speech Language Pathologist

“This lady right here is the glue to our SPED team in MTL. She is always there to listen, gives advice, thinking 10 steps ahead, supportive, thinking outside the box, and is a great team player. Along with that she builds great relationships with the families we serve and if there is ever a problem she is right there to jump in and help solve it! She made this crazy year so much better and so very thankful for her! We need 10 more Amy’s in every school!”

Kayla Speidel – Long Term Facilities Maintenance Specialist

“Kayla has a great attitude and is always willing to learn new things and help out where needed.”

Amanda Tykwinski – Business Services Specialist

“Amanda has a wealth of knowledge when it comes to school finances. She is very helpful to the team by always being available and willing to help answer questions, or talk through a process to ensure newer employees understand. She has recently taken the lead on organizing and offering training sessions for year-end items for the Finance team. Amanda has been a huge asset to the team and is greatly appreciated.”

Morgan Guardado – Behavior Therapist

“The transition between The Ready Clinics would be difficult without your support and patience. You thrive with the clients and your skills as an ABA therapist have grown tremendously. I enjoy watching and learning from you. Thank you for always being such a rockstar therapist! Pipestone is lucky to have you!”

“Morgan is always willing to help me out. Doesn't matter when or where, she will help if I don't understand something or catch me up to speed in new processes. I could not do my job without her!”

Amber Grengs – Behavior Therapist

“Amber has been so amazing to work with. It is nice to work with her and have her share her skillset with me. She is always willing to come in and help out wherever needed.”

Lori Grant – Business Services Specialist

“Lori does both finance and payroll and is very knowledgeable in both. She is always willing to drop everything and help those with questions. If she doesn't know something, she will research it and find the answer. She puts in many hours and works tirelessly for her districts.”
